Keene STATE COLLEGE

Wisdom to make a difference.

Keene State College | 229 Main Street | Keene, New Hampshire 03435 | www.keene.edu

Dear Friends,

At The Colonial, we believe sharing cultural experiences with others, be it a concert, dance performance, spoken word or film, is critical to sustaining a vibrant and desirable, and economically healthy community. In addition to its natural appeal, let's not lose sight of the unique experience public arts events provide. They are both a reinforcement of all we share and also a celebration of our diversity.

We hope you are able to join us this year to experience the variety of events coming to The Colonial's stage including an evening with the mind-blowing rhythms of Yamato: Drummers of Japan, jazz-pop crossover sensation Chris Botti, country music icon Wynonna, and enduring classic-rock faves, America, to name just a few.

Whether you value "buying local" or simply delight in the arts, a Colonial membership is one of the most effective ways to invest in the economic and cultural health of our region. Your membership helps cover 40% of the expenses associated with presenting distinguished performers, providing discounted rentals to local nonprofits, annually exposing more than 7,000 K-12 students to the wonders of live performance, and caring for our community's landmark gem.

On behalf of the Colonial staff and board, we thank you for your patronage, support, and all of your good vibes.

As always, I look forward to seeing you at The Colonial.

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

MISSION

The Colonial Theatre is a historic performing arts center, which brings the cultural and creative spirit of our community to life.

VISION

The Colonial Theatre will be the model regional performing arts center; exciting, educating and challenging audiences of all ages.

ABOUT THE COLONIAL THEATRE

The Colonial Theatre is a non-profit performing arts center entertaining more than 50,000 patrons annually (including 8,000 school children), with acclaimed film, music, theater, and dance performances. The historic 900-seat theatre, built in 1924 and undergoing a major restoration in the 1990s, was named to the New Hampshire State Registry of Historic Places in 2004.

Pursuing its vision to "be the model regional performing arts center, exciting, educating and challenging audiences of all ages," The Colonial Theatre presents diverse and relevant programming, including its trademark live performance series, award-winning films, and innovative community outreach programs; additionally, The Colonial Theatre plays host to numerous community events for the benefit of more than a dozen local non-profits each year.

A cultural anchor in the regional economy, The Colonial Theatre and its patrons contribute more than $4 million annually to the local economy through show and visitor related spending. For more information, visit TheColonial.org.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Street view of The Colonial Theatre circa 1935

1793–1800	Peleg Sprague, first Keene resident elected to Congress, built and lived in a house where The Colonial Theatre now stands
1800–1835	Samuel Dinsmoor, New Hampshire Governor and Congressman, purchased and lived in the Sprague house until his death in 1835
1835–1923	The Colonial Inn stands on the site of what will become The Colonial Theatre
1923	Construction of The Colonial Theatre begins
1923–1925	The Colonial Theatre owned and operated by Charles Baldwin
1924	The Colonial Theatre opens - 6000 tickets given away to film screening of The Hunchback of Notre Dame
1924–present	The Colonial Theatre is in operation
1925–1984	The Colonial Theatre owned by Demetrious Latchis
1944	Neon marquee installed; in continuous use through present day
1950s	Cinemascope screen installed
1954	Orchestra pit filled in, original wooden floor replaced with sloping cement floor
1984–1993	The Colonial Theatre owned by Steve Levin & Ira Gavrin (Main Street Production Co.)
1993–present	The Colonial Theatre owned and operated by The Colonial Theatre Group, Inc., a nonprofit corporation.
1993	The stage is restored to its original dimensions, permitting full scale productions
2007	Aging main doors and clerestory windows replaced with locally crafted, historically accurate doors and windows
2014	The Colonial Theatre celebrates 90 years of continuous operation and 20 years as a nonprofit organization

In gratitude of a wonderful regional theatre and performing arts center. Thank you for inspiring the cultural and creative spirit of our community.

In the 2016-2017 Season, ushers volunteered a total of 4432.5 hours. The dollar value of volunteer hours in NH according to The Independent Sector is $24.90 and, therefore, the value of the Colonial Volunteer Ushers Hours for 2016-2017 is $110,369.25!

BECOME AN USHER!

Colonial volunteer ushers come from all walks of life: professionals, retirees, and students. Many benefits are realized through participation in this program: service to the community and the arts, camaraderie with other volunteers and the opportunity to see the variety of world-class performers who entertain our community.

"Living at Bentley Commons has been delightful. I have a beautiful apartment in a splendidly rehabilitated old mill building. There are pleasant, interesting residents to talk with and a large staff of kind, well-informed and helpful people. They provide us with a multitude of services and entertaining and informative activities. Plus, the food is great! Give Bentley a try. You'll be glad you did!"

EDUCATION AND COMMUNITY

The Colonial Theatre is passionately invested in the cultural health of our community through our commitment to providing outreach for the underserved and educational opportunities for all ages. Our educational programs are designed to engage children, teens, and adults in the artistic process, cultivate appreciation of the performing arts and make the performing arts a vital and fundamental part of school and community life.

Thanks to a generous grant from The Eppes-Jefferson Foundation, Inc., The Colonial Theatre is pleased to participate in the Senior Scholarship Program – an initiative that provides complimentary tickets to live Colonial events for low- to moderate-income senior citizens. Partnering with Home Healthcare, Hospice and Community Services (HCS), Keene Housing Authority, and Southwestern Community Services, The Colonial will identify seniors who are eligible for this exciting new program. In the 2016 - 2017 Season, 145 eligible seniors took advantage of this program for the 8 different available events.

The Colonial's Student Matinee Series offers high quality performances that complement school curriculum and illustrate the dynamic relationship between the performing arts and literature, history, science and world cultures. The series also includes events that introduce art forms outside the curriculum. An important resource for area educators, the Student Matinee Series brings quality performing arts experiences to an average of 8,000 school children from more than 120 schools each year, and more than 1,000 home-schooled children.

The Colonial also offers workshop programs for students and educators that inspire participation in a variety of ways. Students deepen their understanding of, and engagement in, literature, history, world cultures and performing arts through artist-led workshops and lecture-demonstrations. Post-performance and after school teacher workshops add to teaching strategies by exploring new techniques for using the performing arts to enrich curriculum.

Students in grades 5 through 12 and a parent or chaperone can attend the "Met Live in HD" at no cost through the Colonial's Opera-tunity Program. Opera-tunity is a Colonial Theatre educational initiative presented in conjunction with the New York Metropolitan Opera's "In Schools" program that focuses on developing a younger audience for opera. Through this special program, which is funded primarily by the Putnam Foundation and the Metropolitan Opera, The Colonial Theatre is able to provide teacher/parent resource materials and tickets to select broadcasts of "Met Live in HD" programs at no cost. Parents who escort their children are also given complimentary tickets. Students and parents who are interested can register to attend the following 2017–2018 "Met Live in HD" shows as part of this year's program:

ENGAGEMENT PROGRAM

DIE ZAUBERFLÖTE (The Magic Flute), (Mozart) - October 14

L'ELISIR D'AMORE (Donizetti) - February 18

LA BOHÈME (Puccini) - February 24

COSÌ FAN TUTTE (Mozart) - April 8

CENDRILLON (A Version Of Cinderella), (Massenet) - April 28

The Colonial Theatre also offers In-School Outreach through such programs as Opera To Go, in which professional singers perform short operas, arias, or opera scenes followed by talk back and Q&A with students; and outreach performances in middle or high schools for string/music students by Apple Hill String Quartet.

In addition, the Theatre hosts or co-hosts a number of Free Public Events throughout the season. For the 2017-2018 Season, these will range from the annual Kristallnacht Commemoration on November 9, to a special mapping project with Artist in Residence Brad Houk, to free screenings and discussions of select films and documentaries throughout the season.

For further information on any of these programs or events, contact Vicky Pittman, Director of Education and Community Engagement: vicky.pittman@thecolonial.org.

The COLONIAL Theatre

HISTORIC PRESERVATION FEE

A $2.50 Historic Preservation Fee is included in the price of each ticket. This fee helps fund the long-term maintenance, restoration and improvement of our historic theatre. The Colonial Theatre is listed on the New Hampshire State Register of Historic Places.

STUDENT RUSH TICKETS

A limited number of student rush tickets may become available two hours before curtain. For details or to purchase rush tickets, please inquire at the box office.

SPECIAL NEEDS

The Colonial Theatre welcomes anyone who wants to share in the theatre's experience. Integrated and dispersed accessible seating is provided to patrons with disabilities, their family and friends. Please note that some events have noise levels and mature content that may not be appropriate for all audiences. You are urged to contact us in advance to discuss individual access requests at voice/relay 603/352-2033.

HOUSE POLICIES

Latecomers will be seated according to the discretion of the house manager. EVERYONE including youth (17 years old and under), children (12 years old and under) and babes in arms must have a ticket to enter the theatre. Video, audio, and/or photography of any performance is not permitted.

INCLEMENT WEATHER

If an event is presented as scheduled, The Colonial Theatre is contractually obligated to pay the performers. Therefore, we are unable to offer refunds or exchanges.

CELL PHONES

For the consideration of the performers and the audience, please silence all mobile devices during the performance. Video use of cell phones is at the discretion of the artists. Please respect their wishes.
